Pikes Peak Habitat for Humanity and Lowe's invite women to build up their communities during National Women Build Week 2018

On May 5th, Pikes Peak Habitat for Humanity will kick-off National Women Build Week by building locally in Fountain, Colorado.

WHAT: Pikes Peak Habitat for Humanity (PPHFH) will gather over 50 volunteers to help build homes in Fountain, Colorado as part of National Women Build Week.

Now in its 11th year, National Women Build Week, an initiative created by Habitat for Humanity and Lowe's, has brought together more than 117,000 all-women construction volunteers to build or repair more than 4,500 homes. This year, Lowe's donated nearly $2 million to Habitat for Humanity to support the 2018 National Women Build Week, which is set to take place in 300 communities nationwide.

WHEN: Saturday, May 5, 2018. Volunteers will work 8:30am-12noon and 1pm-4:30pm, and presentations by Lowe's and PPFH will be during 12pm-1pm.

WHERE: Country Living development in Fountain, Colorado.
Meet at 811 Bunting Avenue:
Head south on I-25 toward Fountain.
Take exit 132A and turn east on Mesa Ridge Pkwy.
Take the US 85 ramp and turn right (south) on US-85 S.
Turn left on Comanche Village Drive and take the first right on El Paso Street.
Take the first right on Bunting Avenue. Look for the construction trailer.
