An Interfaith Dialogue Event Surrounding Affordable Housing in Celebration of the 2022 UN's World Interfaith Harmony Week

An initiative of Pikes Peak Habitat for Humanity in association with the Pikes Peak Interfaith Coalition

Sunday, February 6th at 3pm-4pm
Jenkin's Middle School *

6410 Austin Bluffs Pkwy, Colorado Springs, CO 80923

Join Pikes Peak Habitat and the Pikes Peak Interfaith Coalition for an afternoon celebration in honor of the 2022 United Nations' World Interfaith Harmony Week. During the event, attendees will be able to learn more about this important initiative, have an opportunity to participate in a unique interfaith dialogue experience surrounding the topic of housing affordability, and learn about a tangible way to support interfaith work locally.

A celebration cake and refreshments will be provided. In accordance with our host venue's desires, we would encourage all attendees to wear masks to the event.

Please RSVP to emma@pikespeakhabitat.org. We will be offering a hybrid format for the event. If you are planning to attend the event virtually, please note that in your email, and one of our staff members will send you the zoom link prior to the event date. We would encourage you to attend the in person event if possible. We hope that you will consider joining us for this unique event.

*"These activities will take place on property that Pikes Peak Habitat has licensed from Colorado Springs School District Eleven pursuant to Board of Education Policy KF. Our group has paid a full rental fee for the facility and, therefore, our rental of the facility is not supported by education tax dollars. Our use of a District facility represents neither agreement nor disagreement with our groups goals, purposes, or statements by the Board, Administration, or the District."
