

Day 5: Sunday, Feb. 5

An Initiative of Pikes Peak Habitat for Humanity in Celebration of the 2023 UN World Interfaith Harmony Week

Today you are encouraged to attend the “Building the Beloved Community” Interfaith Dialogue event this afternoon. If you have completed four of the five days of challenges already, bring your map to the event and collect your prize.

1 OVERVIEW

Today’s interfaith dialogue event will focus on "Building the Beloved Community," a term coined by Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. to describe "a community that includes diversity and allows for tension undergirded by love to lead to transformation to create a community of justice, equal opportunity, and dignity for all." Attendees will hear from an expert panel on homeownership barriers, the history of the racial homeownership gap, and positive examples of "building the beloved community." Attendees will then have the opportunity to participate in a unique facilitated interfaith dialogue discussion over a shared meal.

2 Event Details & Registration

Date: Sun. Feb. 5, 2023

Time: 4-6p.m.

Location: U.S. Air Force Academy Community Chapel (5134 Cathedral Dr., Air Force Academy, CO 80840)

If you have not yet registered for the event, please fill out the registration form here or email Chloe@pikespeakhabitat.org.

3 DAILY ACTION OPTIONS

- 1) In prep for today’s interfaith discussion, watch this video to learn about how engaging in interfaith work can help influence the community we call home.
- 2) Share one of our Interfaith Week social media posts on your own platform.
- 3) Jot down a positive experience you’ve had with someone from a different faith tradition, and brainstorm a belief system you would like to learn more about.