

Action Steps to Build Bridges Across Lines of Faith

A community
of justice, equal opportunity and love for my fellow human beings

Attend a future Interfaith Dialogue hosted by the Pikes Peak Inter Faith Coalition.

Thursday, April 25, 2024
5:15 - 6:30 p.m.
Grace & St. Stephen's Episcopal Church

Attend Pikes Peak Habitat's Interfaith Bridgebuilding Training Night to learn about a new, free 8-part video training series available to our local community

Saturday, Feb. 24, 2024
10:30 - 11:30 a.m.
5303 Beauport Dr.
Colorado Springs, CO 80915

Attend Pikes Peak Habitat's 3rd Interfaith Build for Unity Home Dedication Ceremony for Jessica's Family

- Attend a religious service of another tradition than your own.
- Introduce yourself to your next-door neighbors.
- Share a meal with a friend who has a faith tradition or belief system other than your own and ask meaningful questions. Come to the conversation looking to learn and ask open-ended questions.
- Attend a city council meeting to stay informed about local issues.

- Read Pulitzer Prize finalist Race for Profit: How Banks and the Real Estate Industry Undermined Black Homeownership by Keeanga-Yamahtta Taylor and then check out Pikes Peak Habitat's discussion guide.
- Keep building bridges across lines of difference by volunteering with local Team Up partner organizations including the YMCA of the Pikes Peak Region or Catholic Charities of Central Colorado.
- Learn more about the actions the City of Colorado Springs Mayor's Office plans to take to address community feedback by checking out its 2024 Strategic Doing Framework.
- Read Out of Many Faiths by Eboo Patel to learn how we can all engage with individuals from diverse beliefs.