

Pikes Peak Habitat for Humanity Receives $12,500 Grant from U.S. Bank Foundation

Colorado Springs, COLORADO (10/8/2024) – Pikes Peak Habitat for Humanity, a nonprofit organization that supports affordable homeownership for workforce families in El Paso County, announced it has received a $12,500 grant from the U.S. Bank Foundation. The grant will be used to help build affordable homes.

“Creating equitable opportunities for our community requires resources, and we appreciate the support from the U.S. Bank Foundation, which helps us continue to build and expand the innovative programs we’re proud to offer,” said Kris Lewis, CEO of Pikes Peak Habitat.

Pikes Peak Habitat brings people together to build strength, stability, and self-reliance through shelter. Since its founding in 1986, Pikes Peak Habitat has partnered with more than 300 families in El Paso County.

“Safe and stable housing helps children, families and communities thrive. Working with Pikes Peak Habitat to create access to affordable housing is an investment that will benefit generations to come,” said Marcia Romero, community affairs manager at U.S. Bank.

U.S. Bank is committed to powering human potential and creating lasting change in communities. The bank does this through the Community Possible platform, including philanthropy, community investments and team member volunteerism.
