Pikes Peak Habitat for Humanity Hosts Fundraiser Honoring Veterans
Decorated Studs Will Frame House for Veteran Family

Colorado Springs, CO (June 25, 2025) – Every year, Pikes Peak Habitat for Humanity builds a home in partnership with a local veteran family. This year, U.S. Army veteran Willie and his wife Barbara are building their home with Pikes Peak Habitat, a nationally recognized Veterans Build affiliate of Habitat.

Pikes Peak Habitat is hosting a fundraiser, Veterans Build Stud Decorating Day, to encourage the public to help build the home by sponsoring a stud for $50 or block for $35. This cost covers registration for the event where donors can decorate stud(s) or block(s) with messages and drawings of hope, encouragement, and inspiration. The home will be framed using these studs and blocks.

WHEN: Saturday, June 28, 10 a.m.-12 p.m.

WHERE: 868 Bidwell Dr., Colorado Springs, CO 80915

Future Habitat homeowners, Willie and Barbara, will be at the event, as well as Pikes Peak Habitat's Director of Construction Services Eric Wells, and Donor Relations Manager Emma Price.
